

Marie Skłodowska Curie – Innovative Training Networks Structured Doctoral Training in Horizon 2020

12 February 2014, 10.30-13.30h

University of Cologne, Dozentenzimmer in the Main Building, Albertus-Magnus-Platz

In order to attend the workshop, please register online. There is the possibility for one-on-one consulting. If interested, please send an email to Patricia Hoff (p.hoff@verw.uni-koeln.de).

10:30 Welcome

Dr. Matthias Hendrichs, Head of Department 7 Research Management, University of Cologne

10:40 Innovative Training Networks (ITN) – Structured Doctoral Training in Horizon 2020

Victoria Llobet, European Liaison Office of the German Research Organisations (KoWi)

11:30 Innovative Training Networks (ITN) – Tips for Proposal Writing

Victoria Llobet, European Liaison Office of the German Research Organisations (KoWi)

12:15 Coffee break

12:30 Experiences of an ITN Coordinator

Prof. Dr. Susanne Crewell, Coordinator of the ITN ITARS– Initial Training for atmospheric Remote Sensing, University of Cologne

13:15 The Services of Department 7 Research Management

Patricia Hoff, Division 71, University of Cologne Dorothee Eder, Division 74, University of Cologne

13:30 End

The Department 7 of the University of Cologne organises in cooperation with the European Liaison Office of the German Research Organisations (KoWi) a workshop on the Innovative Training Networks (ITN) in Horizon 2020. The workshop addresses experienced researchers who want to apply for a network for structured doctoral training. The workshop does not include the presentation for individual funding possibilities for doctoral students.

Contact

Patricia Hoff (M.A.)
Department 7 Research Management
Division 71 Analysis & Consulting Services email: p.hoff@verw.uni-koeln.de phone: 0221 / 470-5379

The workshop is organized in cooperation with the EU Liaison Office of the German Research Organisations.